FOREWORD

The giant freshwater prawn Macrobrachium rosenbergii is one of the most coveted and delicious edible decapod crustacean. Other species of this genus, also constitute an important fishery. The culture of Macrobrachium spp., particularly that of scampi M. rosenbergii has gained recently much importance due to its high economic value. A large quantum of production comes from the open water systems as well.

Therefore, an attempt has been made to encompass information related to different species of Macrobrachium in the form of a bibliography as a document for research support. Compilation of literature on this very important species is a hard job and I have every reason to believe that this compilation work, mostly based on contributions from India and neighbouring countries, will be useful to the students, researchers and other stake holders involved in fisheries development.

The persons involved in this compilation deserve appreciation for their efforts.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The authors are indebted to Dr. K. K. Vass, Director, CIFRI for providing necessary support and encouragement. They express their gratitude to Dr. Amitabha Ghosh, Principal Scientist (former member of Library Committee) for his guidance, help and keen interest in preparation of the manuscript. Acknowledgement is due to Dr. Manas Kumar Das, Principal Scientist and Chairman Library Committee for his valuable advise. The authors wish to record their thanks to Smt. K. Jacqueline and Shri T. Chatterjee, Technical Officers for extending their help.
